Built during the Japanese colonial period, the factory it served was later transformed into housing for KMT military dependents. Today, this historic site has a new purpose: it has become "Home under the Big Chimney," a haven for tens of thousands of Asian parti-colored bats. Recognizing this unique ecological partnership, our school and a dedicated conservation team work together to promote bat conservation education. We serve as an educational platform, fostering a spirit of harmonious coexistence with nature.

Celebrating Tradition: The Five-Year Grand Ceremony of the Twelve Guardian Kings
Held every five years at Maming Mountain Zhenan Temple in Yunlin County, Taiwan, the Five-Year Grand Ceremony of the Twelve Guardian Kings is a grand celebration that blends religious tradition with vibrant cultural expression. This prestigious event was recognized as an important folk custom by the Ministry of Culture in August 2019, solidifying its status as a national intangible cultural asset.

在地社區特色

A Network of Faith: Branch Temples and the Twelve Guardian Kings

A cornerstone of Taiwanese folk religion is the establishment of branch temples. These temples function as extensions of a main temple, bringing the spiritual presence of the deities closer to devotees. In the case of the Twelve Guardian Kings, also known as the “Wu-nian-qian-sui”, this practice allows worshippers to pay their respects and seek blessings at temples closer to their homes or in different locations. Maming Mountain Zhenan Temple serves as the head temple for this network of devoted followers.
